WEEKLY ROUND-UP

Robins move well clear with six-goal romp.

In the Premier Division Hassocks are now eleven points clear at the top following their 6-0 demolition of struggling Lingfield, with Charlie Pitcher and Jamie Wilkes hitting two apiece, second placed Haywards Heath were beaten in the days top game, losing 2-1 at Crowborough, who moved into the play-off places with this win.

Roffey stay third, as they won 4-0 against Saltdean, and Petersfield maintained their fourth place with a comfortable 4-0 win on the road at the Withdean stadium, while Bexhill United improved their own play-off hopes with a 2-1 defeat of Newhaven, with both goals scored by Jack Shonk, who had begun the season with the Dockers!!

Loxwood edged a seven-goal thriller with Wick 4-3, after they had led 4-1, thanks to a Szymon Kowalczyk hat-trick – although a Josh Irish brace mid-way thorough the second half left them hanging on for the points at the end. Pagham, meanwhile, moved further away from the danger area with a 3-1 home win over Horsham YMCA, and Midhurst shared the spoils with visitors Shoreham in a 1-1 draw.

In Division One, the top two both had comfortable home wins, Forest Row maintained their place at the summit with a 5-2 success over Cophorne, thanks to two goals each from Curtis Gayler and Harvey Burgess, while Oscar Weddell replied with both of Cophorne's.

Seaford Town won 4-1 against Arundel in a game of three penalties at the Crouch, a late brace Marcus Richmond (including on pen) making sure of the win after the mullets had reduced the arrears from the spot.

Dorking Wanderers eventually won 4-2 in the surrey derby with Reigate Priory thanks to Ollie Rawlins hat-trick, although having trailed 2-1 at the break it needed two goals well into stoppage time to ensure all three points.

Four goals from Demas Ramsis gave bottom side Montpelier Villa only their second win of the season, beating Banstead Athletic 5-2 at Culver Road, while Harry Spicer's brace gave Selsey the points in a 2-0 home won over Storrington.

Rustington increased their lead at top of Division Two to four points, although they had to do so the hard way – having been two behind early on at home to St. Francis Rangers, they fought back & eventually took all three points thanks to Matt Searle's last-minute winner. With Jarvis Brook's game at TD Shipley one of those postponed, Southwater took the chance to move into second place as Keylan Symonds, and Luke Brodie both hit two in the 5-1 home win against Ferring.

Hailsham Town maintained their fourth place with second half strikes from Will Ridgway and Bayley Wright giving them the points against Brighton Leccy, while Chichester City edged an entertaining game with Capel 4-3 at Oaklands Park, and Bosham moved off the bottom with a 3-2 win at Upper Beeding.
