WEEKLY ROUND-UP

Boars maintain long unbeaten run – but Robins stay well clear.

Premier Division leaders Hassocks maintained their eight-point lead at the top (with further game in hand) as they eventually proved too strong for Bexhill United. Second half goals from Alex Fair, and a Morgan Vale Brace ensured that the Robins remain very much favourites for the title. Roffey, meanwhile won with the only goal away to Peacehaven – maintaining their unbeaten league run that stretches back to 5th October!

This was Peacehaven's last game on the road (played at Steyning) before their long-awaited return home – with new 4G pitch due to be unveiled next weekend.

Eastbourne United maintained their fine recent form by defeating Crowborough Athletic 3-1 in day's standout game at the Oval Arena, meanwhile Petersfield maintained their pursuit of a play-off spot with a hard fought 2-1 win over Pagham, thanks to a late Harrison Cable winner.

Crawley Down Gatwick put the disappointment of last week's FA Vase exit behind them by taking all three points in a highly entertaining clash at Newhaven. The Anvils eventually winning 5-3, helped by a Lewis Gould double, although Dexter Lambert's brace for the dockers ended in vain.

Horsham YMCA eventually won convincingly 4-0 at AFC Varndeanians, although the fact that the second goal arrived after 89 minutes, with two more from Charlie Martin deep into stoppage time suggests a far more competitive encounter.

Relegation threatened Saltdean United, and Lingfield shared the spoils with a goal each midway through the second half, while Shoreham climbed further away from the danger zone with a late solitary goal from Tom Bold against Loxwood.

In Division One, Seaford took advantage of Forest Row's game being called off to reclaim top spot on goal difference, thanks to a convincing 5-1 win over Billingshurst, helped by a first half double from Callum Connor, while Dorking Wanderers stay third following their 3-0 win over bottom side Alfold, thanks to a Jacob Todman brace.

Godalming Town after six straight wins, could surprisingly only draw 1-1 at Copthorne, meanwhile Infinity have climbed into play-off contention after a run of ten games unbeaten as Declan Seiden's brace gave them a 2-1 win at Storrington.

AFC Uckfield Town with games in hand also are in contention, as they won by the only goal at Oakwood, while Arundel won 2-1 at Mile Oak. Meanwhile, a Sam Bull double helped Reigate Priory overcome Montpellier Villa 3-2.

Rustington maintained a six-point lead at the top of Division Two, although they made extremely hard work of defeating bottom side Brighton Electricity 4-3, despite a first half double from Ellis Collier, they needed a late winner from Matt Wilson to clinch all three points. Jarvis Brook in second enjoyed a far more straightforward 3-0 win at St. Francis Rangers.

Southwater remain third, and were the day's highest scorers as a brace each from Keylan Symonds, and Mike Wood, helped them to a 6-1 win at Bosham.

Chichester City overcame Worthing Town 3-1 at Oaklands Park, while Upper Beeding and Ferring shared the points in a 1-1 draw.

Hailsham Town will face Rustington in the Semi Finals of the Sussex Intermediate Cup, as Will Ridgway's double saw them to a 3-2 over Westfield.
